I FEEL THE NEED FOR BOX OFFICE SPEED! (Premium Content)

If anyone doubted the box office pull of Tom Cruise in his iconic rolls, this week should serve to remove those feelings. Top Gun: Maverick opened to an estimated three-day total of $124M with the Memorial Day weekend total estimated to be $150M. Our bottom-line numbers had it at 125M with four days at 150, and we're happy with our Thursday estimates.

As to the other wide opener, The Bob's Burgers Movie, the estimated $12.6M came in slightly above our 4-day forecast of $15M for the Disney/20th Century title. Not a bad weekend at all.

WEEKEND REVIEW

Top five films, led by Top Gun: Maverick's 72% of the total gross swallowed a huge 95.7% of total box office this weekend.

Holdover films held to a modest drop of about 30% driven with good numbers on films that counter programmed to Maverick. Doctor Strange continues to drop on its pattern of close to -50% weekend-over-weekend (3-day).

AG NORTH AMERICA PREMIUM REPORTS

UPCOMING MAJOR RELEASES (Premium Content)

Only two films open wide next week, Watcher (IFC), and Crimes of the Future (Neon), but how wide is still to be determined. Current full run estimates for the films are in the $5M range with expected openings approaching $2M.

Crimes of the Future debuted at Cannes and made a impressions on viewers and critics with diverse reactions, including some reported walkouts.

For the North American market overall, we expect the box office will start to go nova June 10 when Jurassic World: Dominion (Universal) drops at your local cinema. Expectations for the opening are running in the $150-$200M range with a full run forecast total commensurate. A final tally over $500M isn't out of the question.

Lightyear (Disney) hits screens on June 17 and will further the Toy Story franchise. Opening numbers between $80-100M are likely in the offing.

Following on June 24 are Elvis (Warner Bros.), and The Black Phone (Universal). While neither are expected to hit blockbuster status, solid numbers are very likely.

Keeping the mojo rolling, July 1 gives us another industry tentpole in the form of Minions: The Rise of Gru (Universal). Along with it that week is Mr. Malcolm's List (Bleecker Street). The trailer now accompanies Downton Abbey where playing, and can be seen on the Bleeckerstreetmedia.com website.
